CHINA'S TERRACOTTA ARMY *2nd Date***

Franklin Institute, Philadelphia, PA

Step back in time to ancient china and explore the mystery and wonder of China's Terracotta Warriors. In March 1974, a group of peasants digging a well in drought-parched Shaanxi province in northwest China unearthed fragments of a clay figure—the first evidence of what would turn out to be one of the greatest archaeological discoveries of modern times. Near the unexcavated tomb of Qin Shi Huangdi—who had proclaimed himself first emperor of China in 221 B.C.—lay an extraordinary underground treasure: an entire army of life-size terra cotta soldiers and horses, interred for more than 2,000 years. China's Terracotta Army comes to the Franklin Institute featuring the largest collection of artifacts related to the warrior emperor, alongside life-sized terracotta figures from the pits of the First Emperor's Terracotta Army. The exhibit showcases real figures from the terracotta army and over 100 artifacts from the first millennium BC, on loan from more than a dozen archaeological institutes and museums in Shaanxi Province. Complete your experience with the IMAX documentary, Mysteries of China which captures one of the great archaeological events in modern times. We'll have lunch at Positano Coast Restaurant before the museum.

“THE BAND’S VISIT”

Ethel Barrymore Theatre, Broadway

The Band's Visit, a critically acclaimed new musical and New York Times Critics' Pick, arrives on Broadway this fall direct from a sold-out engagement. Featuring music & lyrics by three-time Tony Award nominee David Yazbek (The Full Monty, Dirty Rotten Scoundrels), The Band's Visit tells the story of an Egyptian Police Band that arrives in Israel to play a concert. After a mix-up at the border, they are sent to a remote village in the middle of the desert. With no bus until morning and no hotel in sight, these unlikely travelers are taken in by the locals. Under the spell of the desert sky, their lives become intertwined in the most unexpected ways. The Band's Visit celebrates the deeply human ways music and laughter connect us all. We'll enjoy a delicious lunch at Carmine's Italian Restaurant in the theatre district before the show.

SIGHT & SOUND THEATRE

An amazing production of “Jesus”

In its four decades of bringing the Bible to life on stage in epic scale—this is the first time Sight & Sound has told the life story of Jesus. Sight & Sound Theatres invites you to experience the greatest rescue story of all time! Jesus is the action-packed musical stage adventure that takes you on a miraculous journey alongside the most famous person to ever walk the earth, and the everyday people whose lives he changed forever. While Jesus’ story may be familiar, his actions are unexpected. He befriends outcasts and heals the hurting. He challenges social norms and confronts hypocrisy. He sets sail with fishermen and reasons with religious scholars. And the lives he touches will never be the same. From the streets of Jerusalem to the raging Sea of Galilee, there’s no place—and no person—that his love can’t reach. When we arrive in Lancaster, we’ll enjoy a delicious lunch at Shady Maple, Lancaster County’s largest smorgasbord featuring 200 feet of delicious Pennsylvania Dutch cooking.

HUNTERDON HILLS PLAYHOUSE

Comedy-Drama Classic "Steel Magnolias"

Six women come together in this hilarious and heartwarming story of life, love and loss in a small Louisiana parish. A young beautician, newly arrived in a small Louisiana town, finds work at the local beauty parlor, where a small group of women share a close bond of friendship and welcome her into the fold. The play is alternately hilarious and touching, revealing the strength and purposefulness that underlies the antic banter of its characters. Julia Roberts was nominated for an Academy Award in the Best Supporting Actress category for her performance in the 1989 film version of this play. The Hunterdon Hills Playhouse always serves up a delicious lunch and the unlimited mouthwatering dessert buffet is their trademark.

“ROMEO ET JULIETTE”

Metropolitan Opera House, Lincoln Center

Romeo and Juliette are undeniably the most famous couple in all of western literature and quite possibly the world. Bartlett Sher’s production of Gounod’s sumptuous Shakespeare adaptation was the hit of the 2016–17 Met season and this sweeping tragedy returns again this season with Plácido Domingo conducting. First performed at the Théâtre Lyrique in Paris in 1867, Romeo Et Juliette maintains most of the events of Shakespeare’s masterwork, but the foundation of its structure is a whopping four love duets between the two leads. In this retelling of Shakespeare’s story, two families in Verona, the Capulets and the Montagues, are bitter enemies. Conflict ensues when Romeo, a Montague, and Juliet, a Capulet, fall in love. In hands of the famous bard, the two star-crossed teens fighting for their love in the midst of a family feud is one filled with tremendous emotional weight and political intrigue. Before the performance we’ll have dinner in New York at Brazil, Brazil Restaurant.
